Re: FOIA Request NLRB-2023-000424

Dear Elena Maltos (Rocke Law Group PLLC):

This is in response to your request, under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. § 552, received on November 30, 2022, in which you seek any records pertaining to a named individual's charge in Shunyata Research, Inc., Case No. 19-CA-305202. You assumed financial responsibility for the processing of your request in the amount of $37.00.

We acknowledged your request on November 30, 2022.

Your request as filed, to the extent you are seeking records filed by or about a specifically named individual, is denied.

The Agency neither admits nor denies the existence of any such records because such confirmation or denial would harm the privacy interests protected by Exemptions 6 and 7(C) of the FOIA, 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C). See Philippi v. CIA, 546 F.2d 1009, 1013 (D.C. Cir, 1976). See, e.g., People for the Ethical Treatment of Animals v. NIH ("PETA"), 745 F.3d 535, 541-42 (D.C. Cir. 2014) (holding "Glomar" response appropriate for third-party request seeking documents revealing whether NIH had investigated three named researchers).

Conducting a search by an individual's name, without an NLRB case name or number, could constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy of that individual. FOIA case law establishes that individuals named in law enforcement investigatory files, including charging parties, witnesses, investigators, and informants, have such a protectible privacy interest. See, e.g., Davis v. Dep't of Justice, 968 F.2d 1276, 1281 (D.C. Cir. 1992) (persons including informants and third-parties mentioned in government files have a "strong" privacy interest in non-disclosure of their identities); Schrecker v. Dep't. of Justice, 349 F.3d 657, 661 (D.C. Cir. 2003).

Accordingly, because a search for Agency records cannot be conducted in our electronic casehandling system using the name of the individual you provided, your request for information pertaining to that individual is denied.

To the extent you are requesting the casefile in Shunyata Research, Inc., Case No. 19-CA-305202 by case number, your request is denied in part and granted in part, as explained below.

After conducting a search of the Agency's electronic casehandling system, NxGen, I have determined that certain records responsive to your request are part of an investigative file in an open case before the Agency, and therefore, are exempt from disclosure pursuant to Exemption 7(A) of the FOIA. 5 U.S.C. § 552 (b)(7)(A). Exemption 7(A) allows an agency to withhold records included in an open investigatory file where disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings. See NLRB v. Robbins Tire & Rubber Co., 437 U.S. 214, 236 (1978). Therefore, given the open status of the requested case, the investigatory records in the case file are being withheld in full at this time pursuant to Exemption 7(A).

Your request is granted to the extent that I have attached the formal records in the case (11 pages), which are available to the public pursuant to NLRB FOIA regulations. Upon my review, redactions have been made to portions of these records to protect the privacy interests of individuals named in the records. These redactions were made pursuant to FOIA Exemption 6, which protects personally identifiable information, the release of which would constitute a clearly unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, and FOIA Exemption 7(C), which protects records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, the release of which could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy. 5 U.S.C. § 552(b)(6) and (b)(7)(C).

Please note that Exemption 7(A) protection is "temporal in nature." Citizens for Responsibility & Ethics in Wash. v. Dep't of Justice, 746 F.3d 1082, 1097 (D.C. Cir 2014) (citing NLRB v. Robbins Tire, 437 U.S. 214, 223-24 230-32 (1978)). As such, case file records may become disclosable, subject to applicable exemptions, after the case closes, that is, once a Board decision and/or court order issues, there has been full compliance with a settlement, or the case has otherwise been closed under Agency procedures. Accordingly, you may wish to file a new request at that time.

The status of the case can be tracked on the Agency website at www.nlrb.gov by going to the Cases & Decisions tab, clicking case search, entering the case number in the search box and viewing the case page or by clicking the link here: https://www.nlrb.gov/case/19-CA-305202.

For the purpose of assessing fees, we have placed you in Category A, commercial use requester. This category refers to requests "from or on behalf of a person who seeks information for a use or purpose that furthers the commercial, trade, or profit interests of the requester or the person on whose behalf the request is made, which can include furthering those interests through litigation." NLRB Rules and Regulations, 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(1)(v). Consistent with this fee category, you "will be assessed charges to recover the full direct costs of searching for, reviewing for release, and duplicating the records sought." 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(ii)(A). Charges are $9.25 per quarter-hour of professional time. 29 C.F.R. § 102.117(d)(2)(i).

Fifteen minutes of professional time were expended in searching for and reviewing for release the requested material. Accordingly, please remit $9.25.

Payment Instructions: We are no longer accepting checks or money orders as payment. To submit payment for your FOIA request, please use www.pay.gov. From the www.pay.gov home page, scroll down to the bottom left corner to select "Pay a FOIA Request." Click "See all options" and go to "Filter By Agency" to check the box for the National Labor Relations Board. Continue following instructions on the website. Please remember to include the Invoice Number, which is the NLRB FOIA Case No., and the amount you intend to pay. Further, please be advised that all FOIA payments must paid in full before any future FOIA requests are processed.

You may contact Timothy Bearese, the Attorney-Advisor who processed your request, at (202) 273-3752 or by email at Timothy.Bearese@nlrb.gov, as well as the Agency's FOIA Public Liaison, for any further assistance and/or to discuss any aspect of your request. The FOIA Public Liaison, in addition to the Attorney-Advisor, can further explain responsive and releasable agency records, suggest agency offices that may have responsive records, and/or discuss how to narrow the scope of a request in order to minimize fees and processing times. The contact information for the Agency's FOIA Public Liaison is:
